

Prep-to-Research:

A review of the protected health information (PHI) of a health care provider/insurer in order to assess feasibility of conducting a research study i.e. sufficient records or subjects to conduct research.

Prep-to-Research Data May Not Be:

- ⇒ Removed from the provider/insurer
- ⇒ Used in research applications or to conduct research
- ⇒ Used to contact potential study subjects

For questions contact your grants manager!